GEORGIA FRONTIERE

OWNER and PRESIDENT

Georgia Frontiere has fashioned a successful, multi-faceted organization which has participated in post-season play six of the last seven years and advanced to the NFC championship game, just one step short of the Super Bowl last season.

As a member of the Executive Committee of NFL Properties, the licensing and marketing arm of the National Football League, she has long been a proponent of international play and has led her team across the ocean to extend the helping hand of friendship to other nations. The NFL's American Bowl series now reaches out to England, Japan, Germany and Canada and Georgia was a guiding force in the creation of this popular series. The Rams are an impressive 3-0 in international play, with victories in London, Tokyo and Berlin.

Closer to home, Georgia's Rams have become a tradition as they begin their 45th year in Southern California. The team is coming off one of the most exciting years in its history and is now positioned to make a strong run at the Super Bowl. Clearly, the Rams are a force to be reckoned with. This comes as little surprise to Georgia Frontiere. In fact, it is all part of her grand plan...to return the club to the Super Bowl.

While she is known primarily for her football acumen, the game only represents a portion of the life of this dynamic patron of the arts. She is a Patron of the Los Angeles Music Center, a member of the Board of the Los Angeles Opera Guild, the Golden Horseshoe of the Metropolitan Opera Guild and the Impresario Circle of Orange County's Opera Pacific. Also, the Board of New York's Collegiate Chorale and the Master Chorale of Orange County.

Georgia is an avid supporter of Great Britain's St. John Ambulance Brigade and was honored by the Boy Scouts of America for her 'Continued Demonstration of the Virtues of Charity.'

She has introduced a nationally-acclaimed drug awareness program to schools in Los Angeles and Orange counties and has joined with Orange County Sheriff Brad Gates in developing and introducing the Drug Use is Life Abuse Program. This involvement has won praise from President Bush.

A favorite charity is the Los Angeles Boys and Girls Club in East Los Angeles. Georgia Frontiere is on its Board of Directors and the club recently dedicated its aquatics center in her name.

Georgia has been honored by the Orange County Sports Hall of Fame with its Lifetime Achievement Award for her charitable commitment and community involvement. Long an avid supporter of youth sports, she was named Grand Marshal of last year's Shrine North-South Football Classic, played at the Rose Bowl. Another long-standing event, the Times/Rams Charity Football Game, has raised well over $3 million for youth charities.

Education has always been important to Georgia. She is a member of the Board of Trustees of Chapman College, is a Life Associate of Pepperdine University and underwrites scholarships in various fields of learning at UCLA and USC, among other colleges.

She is on the Western Regional Executive Board for the National Foundation for Ileitis and Colitis and the Board of the American Foundation for AIDS Research. She is also on the Board of Directors of the Los Angeles Orphanage Guild, is a contributor to the National Center for Learning Disabilities and is a Benefactor of the St. Jude Children's Research Center, which honored her as its Woman of the Year in 1986.

Georgia has two children, son Dale Rosenbloom, who is married to the former Kathleen Melville, and Lucia Rodriguez, who is married to Lupe Rodriguez. She has three grandchildren, William, Stuart and Andrew, ages 7, 5 and 2.

His 14 seasons are fourth on the Rams' all-time list and he still holds the club record for most consecutive games played with 201.

JOHN ROBINSON

HEAD COACH

It is rare that a head coach in professional sports today can relate so well to all groups he encounters:

*The players
*The staff
*The media
*The fans

John Robinson is, indeed, a rare man.

Frequently described as a "player's coach," Robinson's assistants are fiercely loyal and he is often referred to as the quintessential coach when it comes to working with the press.

And wherever he goes in Southern California -- and he has been a recognizable face on the sports scene for 15 years now -- Robinson is publicly applauded and personally thanked or congratulated by the fans.

Still, it is the winning of games that remains Robinson's long suit, his passionate approach to each hour of each practice of each week. "The winning is great, but it is the quest that is the most fun," is a favorite Robinson saying.

The quest in 1989 led to 13 wins (only San Francisco had more), a spot in the National Football Conference championship game and enough last-minute thrillers to stuff a highlight film for decades.

The Rams finished the regular season 11-5, including dramatic wins over the 49ers in San Francisco, the Saints in New Orleans, the Cowboys in Dallas and the Patriots in New England.

They slugged it out and beat a good Eagle team in Philadelphia and then defeated the Giants in overtime before losing to the 49ers in the title game.

The winning record was Robinson's sixth in seven seasons with the Rams and it marked a likewise number of playoff appearances. He has coached more games (121), for more years (seven) while winning more times (71) than any coach in Ram history. His overall Ram record is 71-50 (.587) and his overall head coaching mark stands at 138-64-2 (.683).

After being named the franchise's 13th head coach on Valentine's Day of 1983, Robinson's impact on the Rams and the NFL was dramatic and immediate. Robinson took a team that had an 8-17 record over two seasons and posted a 9-7 mark, earning a wild card berth. The Rams went on to upset the Cowboys at Dallas in that game.

In 1984, the Rams improved their record to 10-6, once again earning a wild card playoff spot.

In 1985, the Rams won the NFC Western Division title with an 11-5 record. They became the first team to shut out Dallas in a playoff game when they beat the Cowboys in the second round of the NFC playoffs, 28-0, at Anaheim Stadium. The season ended one week later with a loss to the eventual Super Bowl champion Bears in the NFC Championship game at Chicago.

In 1986, the Rams posted a 10-6 record and advanced to the wild card playoff game before losing to the Redskins in Washington, 19-7.

Considered one of football's foremost experts on the running game, Robinson has produced four NFL rushing champions since coming into the league. He also has the unique distinction of coaching the most prolific college runner of all-time (Marcus Allen, 1981) and the most prolific professional runner of all-time (Eric Dickerson, 1984).

Born July 25, 1935, Robinson was raised in Daly City (CA) and played football and baseball at Serra High School in San Mateo, earning Catholic All-American and All-Northern California honors as an end on the football team.

Robinson earned a bachelor's degree in education from the University of Oregon while playing end for the Ducks. He lettered when the Ducks won the Pacific Coast Conference title in 1957 and he played briefly in Oregon's 10-7 loss to Ohio State in the Rose Bowl.

His coaching experience spans more than 25 years. He was an assistant at Oregon (1960-71) and at USC (1972-74) before moving to the Oakland Raiders in 1975 to be an assistant under his boyhood friend John Madden. In 1976, he was named to succeed John McKay as head coach at USC.

While at USC, Robinson won numerous honors including Pac-10 and West Coast Coach of the Year in both 1976 and 1979. In 1976, Robinson was the first rookie coach in 25 years to take his team to the Rose Bowl.

Under Robinson, USC fielded seven consecutive offensive powerhouses while perpetuating the Trojans' distinguished heritage of defensive excellence.

In 1976, 1977 and 1979, the Trojans finished third and fourth twice in the country in total offense and the 1979 team gained more yards than any team in USC history. Defensively, the Trojans finished first in the Pac-10 four times under Robinson and the 1980 team led the conference in every team defensive category.

At USC, Robinson coached two Heisman Trophy winners, former Ram running back Charles White and Allen (1981). Allen was the first 2,000-yard rusher in college football history, gaining 2,342 yards in '81.

Robinson also coached 18 All-Americans at USC, including 1979 Lombardi Award winner Brad Budde.

Robinson resigned as the USC coach on November 23, 1982, then accepted a position as Senior Vice President of University Relations for USC before taking the Ram job.

Robinson and his wife, Linda, make their home in Yorba Linda.

John Robinson's complete coaching record is on page 197

LARRY BROOKS

Assistant Defensive Line Coach

Has been a major contributor to the success of the Rams' defense for the past 18 years, eleven as a defensive tackle and the last seven as assistant defensive line coach.

Brooks will continue to assist Marv Goux in the handling of a defensive front that recorded 42 quarterback sacks in 1989.

Brooks, a late-round (14th) choice in the 1972 draft from Virginia State of Petersburgh, played defensive tackle for the Rams from 1972-1982.

Brooks' Ram career consisted of playing in 131 games, including 122 as a starter. He was an all-pro selection in 1977, 1978 and 1979 in addition to being named to the NFC Pro Bowl squad from 1976-1980.

Brooks played an important role alongside Jack Youngblood, Cody Jones and Fred Dryer as the Rams won seven consecutive NFC Western Division Championships. He was the starting defensive left tackle in the Rams' only Super Bowl appearance in 1980. He also started in three NFC Championship games for the Rams.

Brooks was named to AP's first team Little All-American squad while playing at Virginia State of Petersburgh. He also earned all-conference honors and was named Virginia Small College Lineman of the Year in 1971.

A native of Prince George, Virginia, Brooks attended Prince George High School where he lettered in both football and track.

An avid outdoorsman who enjoys hunting and fishing, Brooks makes his home in Fountain Valley with his wife, Colleen, and their son, Larry, Jr.

DICK COURY

Quarterback Coach

Now in his fifth season as Rams' quarterback coach, Dick Coury continues to provide his valuable expertise to a dynamic offensive unit that finished fourth in total offense in the NFL last season. Under the watchful eye of Coury, Jim Everett continues to excel as one of the top quarterbacks in the league. Everett led the NFL for the second straight season in touchdown passes with 29 and became the first quarterback in Rams' history to pass for over 4,000 yards in a season.

Coury has coached on all levels of football, beginning (with high school) in 1958 when he was named head coach at Mater Dei High School in Santa Ana. Coury wasted little time in making quite a name for himself as his teams won three CIF titles in nine seasons and made it to the Championship game two others. His overall record at Mater Dei was a stunning 96-9-3 (94%). Among his stars at Mater Dei was quarterback John Huarte who went on to win the Heisman Trophy at Notre Dame in 1964.

In 1967, Coury joined forces with John McKay and the USC Trojans, serving as defensive coordinator. During Coury's three years at USC, the Trojans went to the Rose Bowl each year and won the national title in 1967.

After three years at USC, Coury was offered the head coaching position for the newly formed football program at Cal State Fullerton. Coury led the Titans to two winning seasons and was named Coach of the Year in the CCAA (California Collegiate Athletic Assn.) after his initial season in 1970. In 1971, Coury's Titans defeated Fresno State in the Mercy Bowl at Anaheim Stadium.

Destined for the National Football League, Coury became an assistant to Denver Broncos' head coach John Ralston in 1972. After two seasons with the Broncos, he was named head coach and president in charge of operations for the Portland Storm of the World Football League. Coury was runnerup for WFL Coach of the Year in 1974.

When the WFL folded, Coury returned to the NFL as an assistant coach, spending one year under Tommy Prothro at San Diego and six seasons with Dick Vermeil at Philadelphia. With Coury coaching the quarterbacks and receivers, notably Ron Jaworski and Harold Carmichael, the Eagles made it to their only Super Bowl appearance in 1981.

Coury helped inaugurate the USFL when he was named as the first head coach of the Boston Breakers in 1983. Coury guided the Breakers to to an 11-7 record and was named Coach of the Year. Coury remained with the Breakers as they moved to New Orleans in 1984 and Portland in 1985. While coaching the Breakers in New Orleans, Coury hosted an innovative weekly coaches show that gave Breakers' fans a chance to call one of the team's plays.

The always congenial Coury and his wife, Bonnie, have seven children and seven grandchildren. They make their home in Orange.

GARRETT GIEMONT

Strength and Conditioning Coach

Garrett Giemont, who has been a part of the Rams' organization for the past 19 years, enters this season with the new title of Strength and Conditioning Coach.

Giemont, who has served as the Rams' strength trainer for the last eight seasons, will continue to oversee the team's weight training program and off-season workouts as well as injured players' rehabilitation.

Giemont began working for the Rams in 1970 and was hired full-time in 1978. From 1978 to 1982, he was the team's assistant trainer. In 1983, Giemont became the Rams strength and conditioning trainer.

A strong proponent of fitness training, Giemont frequently speaks to youth groups in the community on steroid abuse, proper nutrition and well-rounded conditioning program.

Adventure travel is Giemont's hobby during the offseason. In 1987, he ran with the bulls in Pamplona, Spain. He is single and makes his home in Irvine.

ARTIE GIGANTINO

Assistant Linebacker Coach

Enters his fourth season with the Rams and first as a linebacker's coach after overseeing the club's special teams the previous three seasons. Gigantino brings a wealth of defensive experience to the position after spending eight seasons as a defensive coach in college, including five as USC's defensive coordinator.

As the Rams' special teams coach, Gigantino contributed to the success of Mike Lansford, the Rams' all-time leading scorer, and a kick return team that averaged close to 20 yards a return (19.8) in '89.

Gigantino came to the Rams in 1987 after spending eight years as an assistant coach at USC. At USC, he coached more than a dozen defensive players who went on to play in the NFL including Linebackers Duane Bickett (Indianapolis) and Riki Ellison (L.A. Raiders).

Prior to his tenure at USC, Gigantino spent six seasons as an assistant at California, where he worked with the outside linebackers as a part-time coach and graduate assistant. He coached the Bears' defensive line his last four seasons and also served as recruiting coordinator in 1978.

Born June 14, 1951, Gigantino played linebacker and fullback, and also wrestled and played on the baseball team at J.P. Stevens High School in Edison, New Jersey.

Gigantino attended the University of Bridgeport in Connecticut, where he was a three-year starter at linebacker in which the team won 22 straight games.

He and his wife, Joanne make their home in Anaheim Hills with their daughter, Jennifer, and son, Brian.

MARV GOUX

Defensive Line Coach

Marv Goux, one of football's most highly respected defensive line coaches, enters his eighth season handling the Rams' defensive front.

Goux was put to the test in '89 by juggling a defensive line that was hampered by injuries. Lost for part of the season were starting left defensive tackle Doug Reed (seven games), Bill Hawkins (six games), Mike Piel (three games) and Brian Smith (10 games). Only two defensive linemen (Shawn Miller and Alvin Wright) played in all 16 games on a line that finished fifth against the run. One of the game's most energetic coaches, Goux has instilled a winning attitude in the Rams' defensive front, causing them to perform admirably against the run or pass.

Prior to accompanying John Robinson when he took the Rams head coaching job, Goux spent 30 years at USC as both a player and a coach. Goux's Trojan heritage began in 1952 when he started at linebacker for the Rose Bowl team that defeated Wisconsin, 7-0. A junior college All-American at Ventura J.C. in 1951, Goux went on to start three years for the Trojans (1952,54,55-he was injured in 53) despite a relatively small 5-8, 185-pound frame.

During his last two seasons, Goux played on both sides of the ball, playing center and linebacker. Goux is one of only two Trojans to twice win the Davis-Teschke Award, given annually to the most inspirational player on the team. He also was the captain of the 1955 team. As both a player and a coach, Goux has gained a reputation as an intense competitor with an admirable sense of sportsmanship. At USC, Goux made the classy gesture of personally congratulating each member of the opposing team that beat the Trojans.

At USC, Goux coached 12 first team All-Americans, including Gary Jeter, who played six seasons with Goux as a member of the Rams. Goux's other All-Americans were: John Grant, Charles Weaver, George Achica, Ron Mix, Marlin and Mike McKeever, Dan Ficca, Damon Bame, Tim Rossovich, Jimmy Gunn and Al Cowlings. The Trojans won five national championships during Goux's stay on the coaching staff.

Before joining the Trojans, Goux spent a year as head coach at Carpenteria (CA) High School, taking them to the small school finals with a 9-1 record in 1956.

Born September 8, 1932, in Santa Barbara, Goux makes his home in Long Beach with his wife, Patti.

GIL HASKELL

Running Back Coach

In his fourth season as the Rams' running back coach, Gil Haskell continues to uphold the club's tradition with a successful running game. In 1989, the Rams featured their seventh straight 1,000-yard rusher in Greg Bell while totalling 1,909 yards on the ground.

Under Haskell's guidance, the Rams featured 1,000-yard rushers in Bell (1988) and Charles White (1987), who succeeded Eric Dickerson as the starter midway through the '87 season. Haskell and positive results are synonomous after overseeing the Rams' special teams for four years (1983-86). His devotion and skill paid off when three players were selected to play in the Pro Bowl; P Dale Hatcher (1985), KR Ron Brown (1985) and PR Henry Ellard (1984) and the Rams' special teams ranked first in the NFL in 1985. During Haskell's reign as special teams coach, only one opponent scored a touchdown on a punt or kickoff return while the Rams scored eight.

The spirited Haskell joined the Rams in 1983 after serving as John Robinson's special teams coach for five seasons at USC. He was also the wide receiver coach for two seasons.

Prior to joining the coaching staff at USC, Haskell coached at St. Ignatius High School in San Francisco for nine years, including the last five as head coach. As head coach he compiled an impressive record of 34-15. He was also the track coach for four years, winning three Catholic Athletic League titles.

Haskell began his coaching career at Riordan High School in San Francisco, serving as line coach for three years while also coaching the track team, which won three Catholic Athletic League titles.

Haskell's Uncle, the late Dr. William O'Grady, was a part owner of the San Francisco 49ers and before going to USC in 1978, he had not missed a 49ers home game in 22 years.

Born September 24, 1943, in San Francisco, Haskell and his wife, Nancy, who is the Rams' Speaker Bureau and Entertainment Coordinator, make their home in Anaheim Hills.

HUDSON HOUCK

Offensive Line Coach

Since Hudson Houck became the Rams offensive line coach in 1983, the Rams have had five offensive linemen earn 20 trips to the Pro Bowl (Tackle Jackie Slater, 6 times; Center Doug Smith, 6; Guard Kent Hill, 3; Guard Dennis Harrah, 3; and Guard Tom Newberry, 2).

Houck's well-known reputation preceded his arrival from USC, where he served as offensive line coach for seven years under John Robinson.

At USC, Houck saw that each of his players maximized their potential as he produced seven first team All-Americans: Marvin Powell, Pat Howell, Brad Budde, Keith Van Horne, Roy Foster, Bruce Matthews and Don Mosebar.

Houck's Trojan lines led the way for Heisman Trophy winners Charles White and Marcus Allen. With the Rams, his offensive lines have been instrumental in the success of Eric Dickerson, particularly in 1984 when he set the NFL single-season rushing record with 2,105 yards; Charles White in 1987, when he led the league in rushing with 1,374 yards; and the past two seasons with Greg Bell rushing for 1,000 yards and Jim Everett becoming the first quarterback in club history to pass for over 4,000 yards.

Houck and defensive line coach Marv Goux were the first two coaches John Robinson hired when he came to the Rams in 1983. The move paid quick dividends as Houck's offensive line allowed the fewest sacks in the league (23 to tie Miami) in his first year with the Rams.

A Los Angeles native, Houck played football in college for coach John McKay's USC Trojans, where he was a backup center on the 1962 national championship team and was the starting center in 1963. A back injury in 1964 forced him to return to a backup role. He earned his degree in physical education in 1965.

After graduation, Houck became a teacher and assistant football coach at Crescenta Valley (CA) High School in 1967 and 1969. His 1968 season was interrupted by service in the United States Army.

In 1970, Houck returned to USC where he spent two years as the head freshman coach and varsity graduate assistant. He left 'SC for a brief stint at Stanford where he served as offensive line coach from 1972-75, before coming back to join John Robinson at his alma mater.

Houck is single and makes his home in Newport Beach.

JAIRO PENARANDA

Special Teams Coach

Enters his first season as the Rams' special teams coach after assisting Special Teams Coach Artie Gigantino last season. Penaranda becomes the 14th former Ram player to go on and become a coach for the club. He was originally a 12th-round draft choice by the Rams in 1981. That year he was the recipient of the Carroll Rosenbloom Memorial Award honoring the team's rookie of the year for his outstanding play on special teams.

Penaranda came to the Rams after assisting USC's special teams in 1988. He also assisted UCLA in their college recruiting following his graduation in 1980.

In addition to playing for the Rams in '81, Penaranda played for the Oakland Invaders (1983) and Memphis Showboats (1984) of the USFL and Philadelphia Eagles (1985). He also spent the '84 season on the San Francisco 49ers injured reserve list. As a member of the Showboats, he also served as the team's special teams coordinator.

Penaranda, a walk-on at UCLA as a junior, gained 267 yards on 59 carries his senior year. He makes his home in Burbank.

STEVE SHAFER

Defensive Secondary Coach

Steve Shafer will again be faced with a challenge in 1990 as he enters his eighth season as the Rams' defensive secondary coach. Having nine different cornerbacks in six seasons, Shafer will be faced with a lineup that could feature two new starting cornerbacks this season. With the departure of veteran LeRoy Irvin and the possible move of Pro Bowl Cornerback Jerry Gray to safety. Shafer will be in search of another workable combination. In addition to Gray, Shafer's arsenal includes veteran safeties Vince Newsome, Michael Stewart, Cornerback Bobby Humphery, who was acquired on draft day as well as Safety Anthony Newman, Cornerbacks Alfred Jackson and Darryl Henley and 1990 second-round draft choice Pat Terrell.

Under Shafer, the secondary has gone through a transformation with players like Nolan Cromwell, Johnnie Johnson, Kirk Collins, Gary Green, Mickey Sutton, Pat Thomas, Clifford Hicks and Rod Perry playing in and out of the line up.

Shafer's biggest challenge may have been in 1986 when injuries forced All-Pro's Gary Green and Eric Harris to retire. At that point in time it looked as if the secondary would face a long rebuilding period; however, under Shafer, it continued to be a strength as Jerry Gray developed into a Pro Bowler at cornerback.

Shafer prepped at Burbank High School where he played quarterback before moving to the College of the Sequoias for two years. Shafer then transferred to Utah State where he played both quarterback and defensive back for the Aggies in 1961 and 1962.

Drafted by the San Francisco 49ers, Shafer opted to play for the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League. He spent five years with the Lions, while also serving as the Athletic Director and head of the Physical Education Department at Westminster High School in British Columbia.

Shafer began his coaching career at the College of San Mateo in 1968 where he took over as head coach in 1973. In his two years at the helm, Shafer posted a record of 15-6-1.

He then moved to San Diego State where he coached each of the defensive positions during his eight seasons there before joining the Rams.

Shafer makes his home in Laguna Niguel with his wife, Jane and their children, Don and Shawn.

FRITZ SHURMUR

Defensive Coordinator

Embarking on his ninth season with the Rams, the last eight as defensive coordinator, Fritz Shurmur has gained league-wide acclaim for his innovative defensive schemes. Faced with a number of injuries in 1989, Shurmur was forced to use linebackers as down linemen in the "Nickel" as well as the "Eagle" defenses and play without his two regular inside linebackers until the tenth game of the season.

The Rams defense answered the test several times in '89 including a goal-line stand against New England to enable the Rams to make the playoffs, and the following week shut down an explosive Philadelphia offense to pace the Rams to a 21-7 victory in the NFC wild card game. Overall, the Rams allowed only three running backs to gain more than 100 yards in a game and finished fifth in the NFC in sacks with 42.

Shurmur's stint with the Rams began in 1982 when he was named defensive line coach. After the strike-shortened season, Shurmur was named defensive coordinator in 1983 and quickly made an impact. The Rams went from 27th to 15th in total defense and served notice that they would soon be in the top echelon of NFL defenses. In 1984, the Rams moved up another notch to 14th overall and third best in the league against the run.

In 1985 and again in 1986, Shurmur's defensive troops finished fifth in total defense, leading the Rams to playoff appearances both seasons. The 1985 season was highlighted by a 20-0 shutout of the Dallas Cowboys in the NFC divisional playoff game. It was the only time in 36 years the Cowboys were shut out in a playoff game. Following the strike of 1987, Shurmur's '88 edition again was impressive ranking ninth in total defense and recording a league-high 56 sacks. It marked the second time (1985) the defense led the league in sacks with 56.

Shurmur, along with Fred Whittingham, ranks number one in coaching seniority with the Rams, as he begins his ninth season with the team and 16th in the NFL. He was named as a finalist for the Phoenix Cardinals head coaching position this past off-season.

Shurmur broke into the NFL with the Detroit Lions in 1975 where he served as defensive line coach. He was named defensive coordinator in 1977 and then moved on to the New England Patriots. Shurmur spent four seasons with the Patriots two as defensive line coach and two as defensive coordinator. In 1979, Shurmur's defense led the NFL in sacks with 57.

Shurmur's coaching career now spans five decades as he began in 1956 at Albion College. He served as assistant football coach and swimming coach from 1956 through 1962, when he became an assistant football coach at Wyoming. Shurmur served as the Cowboys defensive line coach before being named head coach in 1971. He was the head coach for four seasons prior to joining the Lions. While at Wyoming, his teams led the nation in rushing defense twice and in total defense.

The personable and highly respected Shurmur authored his first book, "Coaching Team Defense" in 1988. Published by MacGregor Sports Education, the book covers every phase of defensive football and has received critical acclaim by his peers and fans alike.

Born July 15, 1932, in Riverview, Michigan, Shurmur attended Wyandotte High School (Mich.) and Albion College. He was named All-Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association as a center and earned the conference MVP award as well. Shurmur also made All-Conference as a member of the baseball team. He graduated with a master's degree in educational administration.

Shurmur and his wife, Peggy Jane, make their home in Diamond Bar. They have three children: Sally Ann, Scott and Susan.

NORVAL TURNER

Tight End and Wide Receiver Coach

Norval Turner is in his sixth season with the Rams, including the last four handling both the wide receivers and tight ends. With the emergence of Quarterback Jim Everett and the Rams' passing game, Turner's receiving corps continue to provide the club with a dynamic passing attack. Last season, the Rams proved that their success passing the ball was no fluke as wide receivers Henry Ellard and Willie Anderson became the first two players in Rams' history to simultaneously surpass 1,000 yards receiving for a season. Ellard led the team with 70 catches for 1,382 yards while Anderson totaled 1,146 yards on 44 catches. Tight End Pete Holohan responded with 50 or more receptions for the second consecutive season.

Turner has a long-term association with John Robinson, dating back to 1970 when Robinson, then an assistant coach at Oregon, recruited Turner to be the Ducks' quarterback. His collegiate career was highlighted by throwing for 1,261 yards as a senior in 1974. He then began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Oregon.

Turner moved to USC in 1976 as a part-time assistant when John Robinson was named head coach. The next season he became a full-time assistant in charge of receivers (including Hoby Brenner and Kevin Williams), before switching to coach the secondary in 1980. Turner's 1980 secondary featured Ronnie Lott and Dennis Smith. Turner then moved back to offense when he became quarterback coach for three seasons prior to being named offensive coordinator in 1984. That year, the Trojans went on to win the Rose Bowl, beating Ohio State, 20-17.

Born May 17, 1952 in Le Jeune (North Carolina), Turner attended Alhambra High School where he played both quaterback and defensive back. Turner and his wife, Nancy, make their home in Huntington Beach with their sons, Scott and Drew and daughter, Stephanie.

FRED WHITTINGHAM

Linebacker Coach

Whittingham has coached the Rams' linebackers since 1983 after serving as the team's special teams and tight end coach in 1982.

In 1989, the Rams totalled 42 quarterback sacks, 29 coming from the linebacker position. Pro Bowl Linebacker Kevin Greene led the team for the second straight year with 16.5 sacks. Greene's selection to last year's Pro Bowl is the first for a Rams' outside linebacker since Isiah Robertson in 1977.

Whittingham will be privileged again this season when his third son, Fred, Jr., will suit up and try out for the Rams. In 1987, during the NFL players strike, sons Kyle and Cary

Whittingham spent eight seasons as an NFL linebacker, starting with the Rams in 1964 before moving on to play with the Philadelphia Eagles, New Orleans Saints, Dallas Cowboys and finishing his career with a return engagement on the Eagles in 1971.

Whittingham began his coaching career at Brigham Young University where he spent nine seasons, including the last as an assistant head coach and defensive coordinator, before coming to the NFL.

Born Feb. 4, 1942, in Boston, Whittingham attended Warwick (RI) High School before enrolling at BYU in 1957. He sat out one year before transferring to Cal Poly San Luis Obispo where he played three seasons at linebacker (1960-62). He was signed by the Rams as a free agent in 1963 but missed the season with an injury.

Whittingham and his wife, Nancy, make their home in Santa Ana. They have five children: Kyle, Cary, Fred, Jr., Brady and Julie.

ERNIE ZAMPESE

Offensive Coordinator

Under Ernie Zampese, the Rams offense continues to make its mark in the Ram record books as well as on the National Football League.

Zampese is in his fourth season as the team's offensive coordinator. Last season, the Rams ranked fourth in the NFL in offense while accounting for a Ram record 4,133 yards passing and 6,042 yards in total net yards. The offense also scored 426 points which was second only to the San Francisco 49ers (442 points) in '89.

Zampese's reputation for his innovative offensive schemes was well-known at San Diego, where he guided the Chargers' offense to a number one ranking each of the four years (1983-86) he served as offensive coordinator.

Zampese, a longtime associate of former Chargers' head coach Don Coryell, holds a master's degree in physical education from Cal Poly San Luis Obispo.

With the help of now CBS football analyst John Madden, Zampese began his coaching career at Allan Hancock Junior College from 1962-65, including one year (1964) as head coach before moving to Cal Poly San Luis Obispo in 1966.

In 1967, Zampese moved to San Diego State where he was the defensive back coach until 1975. At San Diego State, he helped launch the careers of NFL players Joe Lavender, Willie Buchanan, Nate Wright and ex-Rams' star Monte Jackson.

Born March 12, 1936, Zampese was the Southern California Player of the Year as a running back at Santa Barbara High School in 1953. He was the starting tailback at USC in 1955-56, and still holds the Trojan record for the longest punt (85 yards).

A third-round draft choice in 1945, Bob Waterfield quarterbacked the Rams from 1945-52. Waterfield also played defensive back and was the team's kicker. He holds the record for most points after touchdown in a career (315), most points after touchdown in a season (54) and most points after touchdown in a game (19). Waterfield is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

1937 On Feb. 13, the National Football League grants a Cleveland franchise to Homer Marshman and associates, a prominent group of local businessmen. Hugo Bezdek is named head coach. As the league's rookie franchise, Rams finish with a 1-10-0 record. Bob Kelley is named radio play-by-play announcer at start of season.

1938 Assistant coach Art Lewis takes over team after three losses and Rams win three of remaining seven games.

1939 Earl "Dutch" Clark becomes head coach. Rams hit .500 mark for the first time with 5-5-1 record. Parker Hall joins team as rookie tailback and wins Joe Carr Trophy as NFL's official Most Valuable Player.

1940 Team drops back to 4-6-1 record. Johnny Drake, powerful Ram fullback, is named to first team All-NFL.

1941 Daniel F. Reeves and Fred Levy, Jr. purchase Rams in June and hire Billy Evans as general manager. Team wins first two games but drops next nine to finish in cellar.

1942 Evans resigns before 1942 season. Charles "Chile" Walsh replaces Art Lewis as assistant coach. Lt. Reeves and Major Levy depart to enter armed forces. Bob Kelley is named club secretary. Team finishes 5-6-0.

1943 Clark resigns. Chile Walsh is named head coach, but NFL grants Rams permission to suspend operations for one season because of wartime difficulties. Reeves buys out Levy.

1944 Chile Walsh becomes general manager and appoints Buff Donelli as head coach. Pickup team finishes 4-6-0.

1945 Donelli joins military service. Walsh names his brother, Adam Walsh, as head coach. Third round draft choice (a future) Bob Waterfield from UCLA joins team as T-formation quarterback and leads Rams to 9-1-0 season for first divisional title in team's history. On icy field, Rams defeat Washington Redskins, 15-14, at Cleveland for world title. Waterfield becomes first player to receive unanimous vote for official NFL Most Valuable Player award. Walsh is named coach of the year. Eddie Kotal joins team as chief scout and Bill John begins 29-year tenure as business manager.

1946 Reeves moves franchise to Los Angeles early in the year. After disappointing 6-4-1 season, both Walshes resign.

1947 Reeves assumes duties of general manager. Bob Snyder is named head coach with Joe Stydahar as new assistant. Team is talent-heavy but injury-ridden in 6-6-0 season. Reeves sells part interests to former partner Levy and to Edwin and Harold Pauley and Hal Seley.

1948 Clark Shaughnessy joins staff as advisory coach. On Sept. 3, Snyder resigns and Clark Shaughnessy becomes head coach. Team wins four of last five to post 6-5-1 mark.

1949 Team wins first six games then hangs on to win first divisional title since moving west. Heavy rain holds down L.A. crowd as Philadelphia Eagles skid to 14-0 win over Rams in NFL title game. Rookie Norm Van Brocklin joins team and gives Rams top-notch one-two quarterback punch. Elroy Hirsch has fine rookie year.

1950 NFL absorbs AAC, leaving Rams as lone pro team in Los Angeles after four years of two-league existence. In February, Stydahar becomes head coach, replacing Shaughnessy. Club opens new offices on Beverly Boulevard. Bill Granholm begins 18-year tenure as equipment manager. Team sets 22 league records in rolling to conference title tie. Waterfield and end Tom Fears lead playoff win over Bears, 24-14, but following week in Cleveland, Lou Groza's late field goal stops Rams' title hopes, 30-28.

1951 Rams win third straight conference title on final day of season, then defeat Cleveland at the Coliseum, 24-17, on 73-yard pass, Van Brocklin to Fears, for first world title since moving to Los Angeles.

1952 After team loses three straight preseason games and drops league opener by big score, Stydahar resigns. He is replaced as head coach by Hamp Pool. Team loses two of next three, but wins last eight to tie for conference title. Rams lose playoff in Detroit. Rams trade 11 players to Dallas for rookie Les Richter, who then enters Army for two years. Waterfield retires.

1953 Club co-owner Harold Pauley passes away. Team compiles 8-3-1 record, losing three games by total of eight points to finish third in conference. Rams defeat world champ Lions in both games.

1954 Bonus choice Bill Wade and tradee Les Richter both join Rams as rookies two years after going from college into military service. Team has disappointing 6-5-1 mark. All assistant coaches resign. Pool soon follows suit.

1955 On Jan. 26, Rams hire Sid Gillman, head coach at University of Cincinnati, to replace Pool. Fine defensive year and clutch field goal kicking by Richter give team hard-fought 8-3-1 record for conference title. Cleveland wins title game at Coliseum by onesided score.

1956 In form reversal, team loses five consecutive early-season games and finishes in cellar tie with 4-8 record.

1957 Ram owners name former Ram publicist Pete Rozelle as general manager. Team loses squeakers on road to 49ers and Lions, finishing 6-6-0, but only two games behind conference leaders.

1958 In preseason trade, Van Brocklin goes to Eagles. Bill Wade sets many Ram passing marks en route to 8-4-0 year.

1959 Team has general letdown and many injuries for worst season since 1937, finishing 2-10-0. Ollie Matson, acquired in big trade, is workhorse at fullback. On last day of season, Gillman and staff resign.

1960 Following death of Bert Bell, Pete Rozelle is named NFL commissioner. Elroy Hirsch replaces Rozelle as Rams general manager. Bob Waterfield is named Ram head coach. Team finishes 4-7-1.

1961 Rams trade Bill Wade, Del Shofner, John Guzik for Zeke Bratkowski, Lindon Crow and 1962 first draft choice, which makes it possible to draft both Roman Gabriel and Merlin Olsen. Revamped Rams finish strongly after slow start, but still show 4-10-0 deficit.

1962 Rams lose four of first five games by narrow margins, then show only occasional surges of success en route to 1-12-1 year. Waterfield resigns after eighth game. Harland Svare named interim head coach. On Dec. 27, in closed auction, Reeves reacquires control of Rams, purchasing full interests of co-owners Pauley, Levy, Seley and Bob Hope.

1963 Reeves sells 49% interest in Rams to Gene Autry, Bob Reynolds, Leonard Firestone, Paul A. O'Bryan, Robert Lehman, J.D. Stetson Coleman and Joseph A. Thomas. Svare is retained. Les Richter retires before season. After 0-5 record, Gabriel is reinstated as starting QB and plays last nine games without relief, guiding team to 5-4 mark and season record of 5-9-0.

1964 Rams sign 10-year pact to play in "new look" Coliseum's "stadium-within-a-stadium." Fourteen rookies make the season squad. Club finishes fifth with 5-7-2 record.

1965 After winning only one of first 10, Rams take three of last four against top two teams in each conference, but Svare is dismissed.

1966 After a court fight, George Allen is released by George Halas from his assistant coaching duties with the Chicago Bears to become head coach of the Rams. NFL and AFL merge in spring. Bob Kelley, "Voice of the Rams" since the club's beginning in 1937 dies in September. Team finishes 8-6.

1967 After 17 years on Beverly Boulevard, club moves to new building on Pico. Training camp is also moved to California State College at Fullerton after five years at Chapman College in Orange. Equipment manager Bill Granholm leaves club after 18 years to take position in league office. Rams record first unbeaten preseason in history with six wins, including victories over first-ever AFL opponents, San Diego and Kansas City. Team completes finest win-loss season ever with 11-1-2 league record to win Coastal Division Championship, the first title of any kind since 1955, then loses to Green Bay in Western Conference Championship Game.

1968 After playoff win over Cleveland in January, team finishes regular season with 10-3-1 record, second in Coastal Division to Baltimore's 13-1 mark. Attendance is over one million for second straight year and Ram defense sets new 14-game NFL record for fewest yards allowed. On Dec. 26, Allen is dismissed as head coach, but is re-hired two weeks later.

1969 After 20 years with the Rams as a player, general manager and assistant to the president, Elroy Hirsch leaves club to become athletic director at the University of Wisconsin. He is replaced by Public Relations Director Jack Teele, and John Sanders becomes Assistant General Manager. Team wins Coastal Division with 11-3 record before losing to Minnesota in Western Conference title game, 23-20. Quarterback Roman Gabriel is unanimous choice as the NFL's Most Valuable Player.

1970 Playoff Bowl victory over Dallas in January heads Rams toward their 25th year in Southern California. With the completion of the merger of the NFL and AFL, the Rams join San Francisco, Atlanta and New Orleans in the Western Division of the National Conference of the new 26-team National Football League. Rams finish second to 49ers with 9-4-1 record. George Allen's contract is not renewed.

1971 On April 15, owner Daniel F. Reeves dies of cancer in New York. His longtime friend and business associate, William A. Barnes, becomes President and General Manager. Tommy Prothro replaces Allen. Playing the toughest schedule in the NFL, the Rams finish with an 8-5-1 record, second to 49ers in the NFC West.

1972 In a history-making move, Baltimore Colts owner Carroll Rosenbloom trades the Baltimore franchise to Robert Irsay in exchange for the Rams. Irsay had purchased the Rams from the estate of the late Dan Reeves. The transaction was completed and announced on July 14. Rosenbloom, the most successful owner in the NFL over the last two decades, brings with him to Los Angeles Don Klosterman, Rosenbloom's general manager in Baltimore. After five years at Cal State Fullerton, Rams move training site to Cal State Long Beach. After 6-7-1 season, all coaches are dismissed.

1973 An observer in '72, Rosenbloom begins to make changes early in 1973, and they pay off quickly. His choice for head coach, former Detroit assistant Chuck Knox, leads team to 12-2 season, winningest in Rams history, and Knox becomes "Coach of the Year," Roman Gabriel is traded to Philadelphia and the new quarterback, former San Diego Charger John Hadl, is NFC "Player of the Year." Rams win NFC West title, but lose in first round of playoffs to Dallas. Other changes introduced by Rosenbloom include return to blue and gold uniforms. Club returns to Cal State Fullerton for summer training.

1974 Carroll Rosenbloom's son, Steve, takes over as Assistant to the President. After 3-2 start, Rams trade John Hadl to Green Bay for five draft choices in bold move that stuns the football world. Hadl's backup, James Harris, becomes starter and leads team to 10-4 record, its second straight NFC Western title and its first playoff victory since 1951 (a 19-10 win over Washington) before the Rams bow to Minnesota, 14-10, in NFC title game.

1975 With defense allowing second fewest points in NFL history over a 14-game season (135), Rams win third straight NFC Western title by completing 12-2 season. After playoff victory over St. Louis, however, they bow to Dallas in the NFC Championship Game. The 34-8 record over the last three years is best in the NFL.

1976 Rams win NFC West title for fourth straight year with 10-3-1 record then beat Dallas, 14-12, for their first playoff victory on the road before 24-13 NFC title game loss at Minnesota. Quarterback injuries mar season and rookie Pat Haden becomes fourth different playoff QB in four years under Knox. Rams' 351 points is highest in NFC.

1977 Rams spearhead new Coliseum configuration which reduces capacity from 91,038 to 71,039. With Lawrence McCutcheon setting new club career rushing record of 5,523 yards, the Rams (10-4) roll to their fifth straight division title before 14-7 playoff loss to Minnesota in Coliseum. Following the campaign Knox resigns to take Buffalo Bills head coaching post.

1978 On Feb. 1, Rosenbloom hires George Allen but releases Allen after second preseason game. Ray Malavasi becomes head coach and leads club to 12-4 mark for the sixth straight division title (tying NFL record). Rams beat Minnesota, 34-10, in playoff but lose NFC title to Dallas. Rams also announce move to Anaheim Stadium beginning in 1980.

1979 Carroll Rosenbloom dies April 2 and his widow, Georgia, becomes majority owner. Club moves to Rams Park in Anaheim, where offices and practice facilities are together. Despite multitude of injuries, team wins 7th straight division title to set NFL record, then beats Dallas (21-19) and Tampa Bay (9-0) in NFC Playoffs. Rams lose to Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XIV, 31-19.

1980 With Anaheim Stadium's capacity set at 69,045, Rams sell out last six home games and finish with 11-5 record. Rams lead NFL in rushing for first time since 1957, gaining 2,799 yards. Rams set 15 club records and tie three others. Nolan Cromwell named consensus All-NFL and receives award as NFC Defensive Player of the Year. Rams enter playoffs as wild card and lose to Dallas, 34-13.

1981 Rams finish 6-10, missing playoffs for the first time since 1972. Nolan Cromwell and LeRoy Irvin named All-NFL. Irvin sets NFL record with 207 punt return yards in 37-35 win over Atlanta. Wendell Tyler rushes for 1,074 yards and ties Elroy Hirsch's club record of 17 touchdowns in a season. Rams sell out first seven regular season games at Anaheim Stadium.

1982 NFL players' strike wipes out seven games of the regular season schedule and the Rams finish last in the NFC with a 2-7 record. QB Bert Jones, acquired in draft day trade from Baltimore, misses last 5 games with a neck injury. In his place, Vince Ferragamo throws for 509 yards vs. Chicago, second highest in league history. Following the season Malavasi is dismissed.

1983 In one of the most dramatic turnaround years in NFL history, Georgia Frontiere begins by hiring former USC Coach John Robinson in February. Revamped front office engineers a dozen off-season trades. Eric Dickerson is drafted on the first round in April. Robinson installs new offense (single back) and new defense (3-4) while Frontiere signs all players on roster. Rams go 9-7 and enter playoffs as wild card team beating Dallas in Texas, 24-17, before losing to Redskins in Washington. Dickerson breaks NFL rookie rushing record (1,808 yards), sets five Ram records and is consensus All-Pro. Cromwell, Kent Hill, Jackie Slater and Dickerson make Pro Bowl. Robinson named NFC Coach of the Year.

1984 Rams make playoffs for second time in as many years after finishing with 10-6 mark. Host first ever playoff game at Anaheim Stadium before record crowd of 67,037 but lose to New York Giants in NFC wild card game. Again, Eric Dickerson is the offensive force behind the Rams success as he rushes for 2,105 yards breaking O.J. Simpson's NFL record of 2,003. Jack Youngblood sets Ram record by playing in his 201st consecutive game. Quarterback Jeff Kemp replaces injured Vince Ferrangamo in Week Three and leads team to nine wins. Dickerson is named NFC Player of the Year and makes Pro Bowl along with Henry Ellard, Kent Hill and Doug Smith.

1985 Rams season falls just one game short when they get beat by the Chicago Bears in the NFC Championship Game. The defense and special teams play prominent roles in 11-5 regular season. Rams defense stifles Minnesota on one-inch line to preserve 13-10 victory as time runs out in Week Five. Ron Brown electrifies Anaheim Stadium crowd by returning two kickoffs for touchdowns against Green Bay to tie NFL record in Week Twelve. Eric Dickerson misses first two games but returns to rush for 1,234 yards. he sets an NFL playoff record by rushing for 248 yards against Dallas in first ever playoff win (20-0) at Anaheim Stadium. Nine Rams make NFC Pro Bowl team: Ron Brown, Jim Collins, Gary Green, Dale Hatcher, LeRoy Irvin, and four offensive linemen, Dennis Harrah, Kent Hill, Jackie Slater and Doug Smith.

1986 Rams make playoffs for fourth consecutive year after posting a 10-6 regular season record. Rams acquire rookie Quarterback Jim Everett from Houston in major trade with Oilers. Everett throws three touchdown passes in debut against Patriots and starts last five games including playoff loss to Washington. Eric Dickerson rushes for over 1,000 yards for fourth consecutive season (1,821) and surpasses former Ram running back Lawrence McCutcheon as the teams all-time leading rusher with 6,968 yards in only four seasons. Defense plays important role in Rams' success, finishing fifth in total defense in the NFL yielding 304 yards per game. Seven Rams selected to Pro Bowl - Dickerson, Carl Ekern, Jerry Gray, Dennis Harrah, LeRoy Irvin, Jackie Slater and Doug Smith.

1987 Rams fail to make the playoffs for the first time in last five seasons while finishing with a 6-9 record. NFL players' strike shortens season by one game while three games are played with non-union players. Rams acquire six draft choices (three No. One's and three No. Two's over the next two years) from the Colts in blockbuster trade for Running Back Eric Dickerson. Charles White takes over for Dickerson and wins NFL rushing title by gaining 1,374 yards and is named to his first Pro Bowl as well as unanimous All-NFL.

1988 Rams qualify for the playoffs for the fifth time in six seasons under John Robinson, who becomes the winningest coach in club history with 58 wins. Rams lose NFC Wild Card Game to Minnesota after finishing with a 10-6 record. Team features wide open offense as Jim Everett sets four Ram passing records and ties a fifth while wide receiver Henry Ellard sets a Ram record for most catches in a season with 86. Defensively, the Rams tie a club record with 56 quarterback sacks which leads the league. Rams have five of the top 47 choices in draft and select RB Gaston Green and WR Aaron Cox on the first round. Five players are selected to the Pro Bowl - Jackie Slater, Henry Ellard, Tom Newberry, Doug Smith and Jerry Gray.

1989 Rams finish regular season with a 11-5 record and qualify for playoffs as a wild card entry. Team posts road playoff victories over Philadelphia and N.Y. Giants before losing to San Francisco in NFC Championship game. Rams 13 wins are the most since 1978. Jim Everett becomes the first player in club history to pass for over 4,000 yards (4,310), while receivers Henry Ellard (1,382 yds.) and Flipper Anderson (1,146) are the first two receivers to gain over 1,000 yards in the same season. Anderson also sets NFL record with 336 receiving yards on 15 catches vs. New Orleans. Safety Vince Newsome tops defense with 89 tackles while Linebacker Kevin Greene registers 16.5 quarterback sacks. Jerry Gray, Kevin Greene, Tom Newberry, Jackie Slater, Doug Smith and Ellard make the Pro Bowl. Gray returns interception for a touchdown and is named the game's Most Valuable Player.

1990 Sign three Plan B free agents including Running Back Curt Warner of the Seattle Seahawks. Team drafts Center Bern Brostek of the University of Washington on the first round and Notre Dame's Pat Terrell on the second. Rams play in third American Bowl series game since 1987 (the most by any NFL team), this year in Berlin, Germany, against the Kansas City Chiefs. Rams move training camp to U.C. Irvine after 17 years at Cal State Fullerton.

RAMS PARK

This season marks the 11th year the Rams have occupied Rams Park, coinciding with the teams' move to Anaheim. Rams Park features both practice fields and administration facilities, a combination which was a trend-setting move a decade ago, and many other NFL teams have since followed suit. With generous office space, food services, weight training areas, two natural grass fields and media facilities, the 10-acre complex has proven to be the perfect setting for both the team and management alike. Rams Park is located at 2327 West Lincoln Avenue in Anaheim.

HISTORY OF ANAHEIM STADIUM

Anaheim Stadium was erected in 1966 as home of the California Angels baseball team at a cost of $16 million. The stadium (43,250 capacity) was expanded in 1979 in order to increase capacity to house the Los Angeles Rams. The expansion in 1979 increased the capacity to app. 70,000 at an expense of $29 million. The first football game scheduled upon completion of the expansion was Aug. 11, 1980, when the Rams faced the New England Patriots in an exhibition game. The first game the Rams ever played in Anaheim Stadium was Aug. 2, 1967, when they played host to the New Orleans Saints before a crowd of 26,364.

The Minnesota Vikings turned a blocked punt into a safety to beat the Rams, 23-21, in overtime at the Metrodome. Vikings Linebacker Mike Merriweather blocked Dale Hatcher's punt, then knocked the ball through the end zone for the 23-21 final. Minnesota Kicker Rich Karlis kicked six field goals to help his team open an 18-7 lead going into the fourth quarter. In the final 1:17, Everett hit Ellard on two passes to setup Greg Bell's one-yard run and a 21-18 lead. Vikings' quarterback Wade Wilson hit Hassan Jones for 43 yards to the Rams' 22. Karlis came on to kick his seventh field goal (tying an NFL record) to send the game into overtime.

Trailing 13-7 going into the fourth quarter, the Rams used two Mike Lansford field goals to tie the game. Los Angeles won the overtime coin toss and went right to work with Everett hitting Pete Holohan for 12 yards. Following an incompletion, Everett hit Henry Ellard for 13 yards to the Rams' 49. The drive was then aided by a 27-yard pass interference call on Giants' safety Sheldon White moving the ball to the New York 25. A five-yard penalty on the Rams moved the ball back to the 30-yard line, but Everett connected with a streaking Anderson down the right side for the score just over a minute into overtime.

Instant Replay Approved for 1990

For the fifth consecutive season, NFL clubs have approved a limited system of Instant Replay on a one-year basis.

There is one significant change in the system from 1989. All replay reviews which involve contact to the field from the Replay Booth will be a maximum of two minutes in duration, timed from the moment when the Umpire signals timeout.

The Replay Official will be assigned to a regular officiating crew and will attend crew meetings the day before each game.

The following table outlines the number of reversals and plays closely reviewed by instant replay in each of the previous four seasons.

	Games	Reversals	Plays Closely Reviewed
1986	224	38	374
1987	210	57	490
1988	224	53	537
1989	224	65	492

In 1986, the system was approved by a 23-4-1 vote. In 1987, the vote was 21-7. In 1988, replay was cleared by a 23-5 margin. In 1989, the vote was 24-4. In 1990, the vote was 21-7.

The NFL has discussed Instant Replay in some degree or other since the early 1970s. The League experimented in 1976 and 1978 using two basic frameworks —an independent system using cameras, replay machines, and technicians separate from the network covering the games, and a "no-frills" approach using existing TV coverage.

In 1985, the NFL used the network feed of the nine nationally-televised preseason games to experiment with the basic system which later was adopted for 1986, 1987, and 1988. A total of 28 plays (17 confirmed calls, 4 inconclusive, 1 reversed, and 6 no replay shown) were closely examined in the 1985 experiment.

Q—What is the objective of this system?

A—The clubs feel that on certain plays the telecast viewed by the general public should be used to correct an indisputable error. The system will be used to reverse an on-field decision only when the Replay Official has indisputable visual evidence available to him that warrants the change.

Q—Who will be involved?

A—The Replay Official (a former NFL or collegiate official) will be positioned in a sideline Replay Booth, which will house two TV monitors and two high-speed VCRs plus radio communications to the on-field officials. The Replay Official makes the decision although a Communicator (normally a member of the League Office staff) and a Technician also will be there to lend logistical help.

Q—Why is the system referred to as "limited" Instant Replay?

A—This system will concentrate on plays of possession or touching (e.g. fumbles, receptions, interceptions, muffs) and most plays governed by the sidelines, goal lines, end lines, and line of scrimmage (e.g. receiver or runner in or out of bounds, forward or backward passes, breaking the plane of the goal line). It also will be used to determine whether there are more than 11 men on the field.

Q—Why aren't most fouls included in this system?

A—It is recognized that in most circumstances the on-field officials have the best vantage points involving fouls. It is for this reason that Instant Replay will not review a list of the following 26 fouls:

1. Clipping
2. Encroachment and offsides
3. Grasp of facemask
4. False start
5. Defensive pass interference
6. Offensive pass interference
7. Offensive holding and illegal use of hands
8. Illegal batting or punching ball
9. Illegal block on free kick or scrimmage kick
10. Illegal crackback
11. Illegal motion
12. Illegal use of forearm or elbow
13. Illegal use of hands by defense
14. Illegally kicking ball
15. Illegally snapping ball
16. Intentional grounding
17. Member of punting team downfield early
18. Illegal formation
19. Palpably unfair act
20. Piling on
21. Roughing the passer
22. Running into/roughing kicker
23. Striking, kicking, or kneeing
24. Unnecessary roughness
25. Unsportsmanlike conduct
26. Use of helmet as a weapon

Q—Is the television network carrying the game part of the review process?

A—No. Although the Replay Official will be viewing the live network feed, there is no communication to television personnel as to which plays to show or not to show. The Replay Official does not hear the TV commentators.

Q—What is the step-by-step procedure of a play review?

A—The Replay Official will view game action and a play will be replayed immediately on one of the two monitors, while the other one continues to record the live feed.

The Replay Official makes a determination if further study of the play is needed. If not, there is no contact with the field and play continues without interruption.

If the Replay Official believes an error may have been made the Umpire will be contacted via a headset.

The Replay Official will watch replay(s) on one or both monitors and complete his review within a reasonable period after the play is over.

The Replay Official will inform the Umpire of his decision, and the Referee will make the appropriate announcement on the wireless microphone.
